

TORONTO, October 29, 2018 /CNW/ - arrive alive DRIVE SOBER® is hosting their annual conference in Toronto with drug impaired driving front and centre.

Experts from policing, public health, research, government and industry across Ontario will meet to share insights and best practices with like minded professionals. 160 delegates will meet to discuss concerns, research and prevention strategies in their respective fields.

After 30 years of messaging, arrive alive DRIVE SOBER has become the most recognized road safety campaign in Ontario. We continue to share sober driving initiatives and programs that have helped contribute to a significant decrease in impaired driving fatalities.

arrive alive DRIVE SOBER gratefully acknowledges its many sponsors and supporters including: The Beer Store, Desjardins Insurance, Ministry of Transportation of Ontario, CAA SCO, Smart Serve Ontario, LCBO, Toronto Police Service, Ontario Provincial Police, and broadcasters across Canada!
